

Security Guards

21st century crime rates are increasing and as a result, making the role of a Security Guard a more essential one to far more businesses than ever before.

In the present times, it is more important than ever that business continuity can be achieved, and any interruption to your business caused, whether it be caused by vandalism, arson, or theft simply has to be prevented. Whilst insurance may offer a way to compensate you for losses or any damage caused, it doesn't compensate for down-time, lost revenue, or failures in service delivery - Potentially losing your company valuable business.

In addition to the basic training stipulated by the SIA licensing criteria, our security guards are also trained in additional areas such as basic fire fighting, emergency first aid, customer service and CCTV operation, along with ongoing internal development to ensure such things as enhanced awareness and effective incident reporting.

All Response Security Solutions' security guards are well presented in a smart uniform tailored to your needs; Hi-visibility clothing is worn after dark and on building sites as a health and safety requirement. Our high quality security guards are trained and assessed on an ongoing basis, ensuring they meet current standards relating to the the Private Security Industry Act 2001.

We will offer a full site security survey and risk assessment which will help us understand the security needs for your workplace and enable us to offer practical advice and recommendations on a security solution that will enhance the protection of your business. This is available free of charge with no obligation and includes areas such as electronic guarding, security guards and security auditing. Security Guards in Cardiff

Response Security Solutions have a team of experienced and time served security guards in Cardiff. In addition to the security role performed by our patrol staff and desk based security guards, we are able to double up as a customer service point for your buildings, and also act as a late night concierge service, thus reducing the requirement for round-the-clock cover. Security Guards in Kent

Response Security Solutions have an advanced team of security guards in Kent, with our head office based in the garden county. In addition to the security services mentioned above, our security control room is located in Kent and all of our guards are linked nationwide to our control room staff.

For information on how to contact us and take advantage of this free offer, please click here