

TV & Film

Response Security Solutions offer a unique service to the TV and Film industry by providing exceptional quality location security personnel to ensure the safety of your crew, equipment and the privacy and integrity of your production.

Upon exchanging contracts, one of our senior managers will act as your contact and will conduct job specific risk assessments and location security surveys which help them, and ultimately help you, to produce a detailed report recommending various levels of set security and what measures need to be taken to achieve them.

The specialist team we use for TV and Film security are hand picked by our management team for skills and attributes such as good communications skills, customer service, presentation and commitment.

Our location security team are dynamic and able to adapt to a number of different location security roles including site construction, set security, audience handling and security, production area security, green room and sensitive area security and also close protection, driving and escort of VIPs, camera crew and production staff including when filming in hostile areas. Location Security, Set Security

Response Security Solution's location security team will work behind the scenes with your production team to keep a site secure. Our roles on a filming location can include anything starting from simple perimeter guarding and set security, ranging up to more involved roles, such as access control and vehicle searching. Crowd Management, Audience Management

Our experienced studio security team have customer service experience gained in the live music and arena industry which has been fine tuned over the last few years in the television audience marketplace. In addition to providing security staff to carry out searches and ushering staff to provide a front line customer service role, we have the best in the business when it comes to blending in to the background and not needing to be seen to provide a reassuring presence.

Response Security Solutions are currently working with clients including Living TV, Antix Productions, Virgin Media and CTV Outside Broadcasts to provide location security services.
